

WAIT! Don't plant that Begonia!

Alternative summer color
for your borders

Although begonias are a favorite of gardeners, there are many other options that should be considered.

Take a tour of annuals and a few perennials that are well-suited for 'front of the border' plantings and have equally colorful and interesting visual impact as begonias.

Copyrighted image used by permission of Color Spot Nurseries

Discover beautiful foliage, textures, bright colors and ornamental grasses that are well suited for landscapes here in Collin County and will enliven your borders.

